This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The Registers of Milwich.

Milwich.

The large and scattered village of Milwich is beautifully situated in a valley about 5 miles S.E. of Stone. The parish contains the hamlets of Coton, Coton Hayes, Dayhills, and Garshall Green.

The Population.

In 1539 there were 38 able-bodied men capable of bearing arms. In 1676 the population was 209, viz.: 192 Conformists and 17 Papists. In 1811 there were 563 inhabitants, and in 1901 only 504.

The Manor. (1)

In the time of Eadward the Confessor (1042-1066) Milwich belonged to two Saxon Thanes, Swain and Rafuin, but at the Conquest it fell into the hands of William the Conqueror, who bestowed it upon Robert de Stafford. His descendants continued to be the chief lords there for some centuries.

In 1086 Osbern held the Manor under Robert de Stafford, and was succeeded in the twelfth Century by the de Milwich family.

In 1255 the Manor had become equally divided between Geoffry, son of Philip de Nugent, and Robert de Milwich.

In 1290 the de Milwich moiety passed to Hugh de Okeover, the son of Alice, grand-daughter of Robert de Milwich.

In 1406-11 the great grand-daughters of Hugh de Okeover sold this moiety to Nicholas Bradshaw, and his descendant William Bradshaw, sold it to the Aston family, temp. Hy. VIII.

The Astons sold a good deal of this property, but the remnant passed to the Dyve family by the marriage (circa 1705) of Dorothy Aston to John Dive.

The de Nugent moiety became ultimately divided between the de Hextalls and the de Grendons towards the end of the thirteenth Century.

About 1300 the de Grendon's share was sold to Lord Stafford and his descendant, Humphry, Earl of Stafford, re-sold it in 1442-3 to Ralph Macclesfield. Charles Chapman is said to have owned this share in 1679.

(1) This brief account of the principal landowners is taken from Domesday, Erdeswick's Staffordshire, Chetwynd's MSS. Hist. of the Pyrehill Hundred in the Salt Library, The Okeovers by Gen. Wrottesley, in Vol. VII. n.s. of the Staffs. Hist. Collections, etc., etc., but the subject is very complicated and requires thoroughly investigating.

The Hextall share continued in that family until the death, circa 1470, of Wm. Hextall, of Seighford, when it came to his two daughters, Joan and Margaret. Joan's part passed through females to the Gerards of Bryn, and was sold in 1563 to Ralph Adderley. John Orchard purchased it in 1581 and sold it to Richard Hurlebut, whose son owned it in 1679. Margaret's part, or the greater share thereof, passed through the Petits', Bowyers', and Adsheads' to John Crompton, who owned it in 1654.

The Advowson.

There was a church at Milwich about 1140, for about this date the advowson was granted to Stone Priory by Nicolaus de Mulewys (Milwich), with the consent of Robert de Stafford, the chief lord. There are several confirmations of this grant by the de Staffords subsequent to this date. It remained the property of Stone Priory until the Priory was dissolved by Henry VIII.

In 1540 the advowson was purchased by Sir John Giffard, of Chillington, who re-sold it in 1542 to Sir Edward Aston. It remained in the hands of the Astons'—except for a brief period when it was owned by Ralph Bayley, of Normacot Grange, Staffordshire, the husband of Ann Aston —until Dorothy Aston (who married, circa 1705, John Dive, of Westminster, London) carried it to the Dyves who still own it.

The Church.

The Church is dedicated to "All Saints," and was re-built in brick in 1792, with the exception of an ancient tower of stone in early English style which contains three bills dated 1426. The font is supposed to be at least 800 years old.

In 1552 the Church contained the following goods or ornaments, viz.:—"3 belles in the stepull, on challes of silver with a patent; "1 [sic.] vestements [i.e. chasubles] of diverse collors with all things to "them; on cope of changeable silke, on surples, on cross of coper, 2 "candelstykes of brasse and clothes for on alter."

The chalice and paten now in use are believed to be the same as those used in 1552.

The Vicarage is a modern built house of good proportions, built upon the site of the old one.

The Vicars.

The following list of the Incumbents has been compiled from the Registers and other sources:—

Sir William Horsley, "vycar of Mylluyche," occurs as witness to the will of Thos. Parcoll, proved at Lichfield, 1554.

Thomas Riddings, probably vicar before 1592. He had no degree, was "no preacher" and was buried 15 Aug., 1610.

James Shaw, instituted Nov. 1610, buried 16 May, 1672

William Caldwall, instituted June 1673, signs Register for the year ending 24 Mch, 1682-3.

Thomas Beech, instituted 6 Dec.. 1683, buried 24 Nov., 1704.

Charles Shaw, "vicar," signs the Lichfield Transcripts on 25 Mch, 1705.

William Shaw, "minister," signs the Lichfield Transcripts on 10 Aug., 1708, and in June, 1711.

Charles Shaw signs the Register as Vicar until			1725.

The Registers.

Vol. I., 1573-1711.

This is a parchment volume in good condition. It begins with a "fair copy" of the Register evidently made in 1599, and is complete except for the following years, viz.: 1685-1701 and 1707 and 1708.

By the kind permission of the Bishop of Lichfield and the Diocesan Registrar the entries for these years have been printed from the Transcripts now at Lichfield.

Between 1685 and 1693 these Transcripts are very defective, and probably contain only about one fifth of the entries made in the original Register.

It is noteworthy that Mr. Shaw, the vicar from 1610 to 1672, continued to baptize and marry people throughout the Commonwealth period, and in one instance at least, people came from Stafford to be married by him. He does not record any births.

There are no curious or remarkable entries with the following exception:—1594, Dec. 8. John. God sent him. bur.

Among the families most frequently named in this volume are the following:—

Adderley, of Coton.
Adshead,
Allen,
Aston,
Barbour,
Biddulph,
Bowyer,
Collier,
Done,
Dorington,
Elde,
Emery,
Erdeswicke,
Foden,
Gerard.
Horsely,
Hurdman,
Hurlburt,
Mynors.
Orchard,
Parcoll,
Phillips,
Porter,
Salt,
Sergeant,
Snead,
Talbot,
Townsend,
Vernon.

Vol. II., 1711 to 1784.

This is a parchment volume in fairly good condition, very legibly written, and containing a consecutive record until 1784; many names appear, representatives of which are still living in the parish to-day; among the more common are:—John Cotton, George Asbury, George Vernon John Sargent, William Haldern, Samuel Knight, &c. There is a curious entry in 1730—Account of Churchwardens—after giving a long list of items, it goes on to say, "Things forgotten to be put down in my account. 5/-."

Vol. III., 1785 to 1812.

This is a parchment volume in very good order and condition; with the following curious entry, "It is agreed by the majority of a vestry "meeting held this day, April 8th, 1776, that all persons that have or "shall subscribe 2/6 towards raising a man or men to serve in the "militia, if that subscription shall not be sufficient to hire a substitute "or substitutes, what shall be wanting shall be raised by a levy."

Vol. I. has been transcribed and is now edited by Mr. Walter Noble Landor, of Rugeley, who is indebted to the Rev. F. J. Wrottesley for revising his transcript, to the Rev. T. T. Whittaker, Vicar of Milwich, for notes on the Registers between 1711 and 1812, and assistance in this introduction, and to Major-Gen. the Hon. G. Wrottesley for reading the proof sheets of pages iii. and iv.

NOTE.

The letter T following a name, figure, or entry in italics, signifies that such are taken from the Lichfield Transcripts.

[In 1693 it is probable that many of the former triennial transcripts had been lost, though those from 1676 to 1685 are still in existence, so a fresh one was called for from the year 1660, as follows :—]

A transcript of all Marriages, Christnings & Burialls in the Regester-Booke at Millich in the Co. of Stafford, from 1660 till the day of the date hereof, to be exhibed [sic] & presented into the Regestry of the Rt. Rev. Father in God William, Ld. Bp. of Lichfield & Coventry, at his primary visitacon held in the parish church of St. Maries, Stafford, on Monday, 18 Sep., 1693.

[This transcript only contains about one-fifth of the entries recorded in the Parish Register between 1660 and 1684, so it is probably similarly defective between 1685 and 1693.]
